

Shared Online Learning Opportunities for Qualified and In-training ACPs and PAs

The Humber, and North Yorkshire Faculty of Advanced Practice are working with colleagues from the North East and Yorkshire are to facilitate monthly online learning opportunities for qualified and in-training ACPs and PAs. Below you will find details of the sessions planned to date, along with links to book a place. Please share with colleagues.

Date & Time	Topic	Presenter/Educator	Book a Place
25 August 2022 11:00 – 12:00	Palliative Care	Dr Kathryn Graves Palliative Care Registrar Sheffield Teaching Hospitals	Click here to book a place
7 December 2022 10:00 – 11:00	Elderly Medicine/ Parkinsons	Dr Tom Mace Consultant Physician Specialty Interest in Parkinson's and related disorders Hull University Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust	Click here to book a place
25 May 2022 19:00 – 22:00	Maxillofacial Injuries	Mr Pete Brotherton (senior Associate Specialist in Maxillofacial surgery) and a case presentation from YCCT Dr Andy Pountney around a Severe Facial Trauma	Click here to book a place
30 May 2022 20:00	Pre-Hospital Major Incident Management	Introductory talk on the basic principles of pre-hospital major incident management by Thomas Hoather, followed by a 40 minute talk from Dr Theo Weston MBE sharing his experience and lessons learned of pre-hospital major incident management over the past 25 years.  Panelists Thomas Hoather – Final Year Medical Student (Newcastle University), FPHC Student and Junior Trainee Group (North East Representative)  Dr Theo Weston MBE – Dr Weston is Pre-Hospital doctor based in the North West of England responding for the Great North Air Ambulance Service (GNAAS), Beep Doctors (BASICS Cumbria) Ltd., Patterdale Mountain Rescue Team and has over 25 years' experience working in Pre-Hospital Emergency Medicine.	Click here to book a place

Colleagues from West Yorkshire have also shared a number of learning opportunities which you can find here.

For further information, to suggest future topics/educators or to be added to our contact list, please email carly.mcintyre1@nhs.net

Humber and North Yorkshire
Health and Care Partnership