

'At a loss for words'

Tips and tools to benefit your bereaved employees in the work place. Get help addressing this complex and sensitive issue.

Free event including breakfast.

FRIDAY 14th JUNE 2024 7:30am 1pm

MKM Stadium, Anlaby Road,
Hull, HU3 6HU

Breakfast and registration

7:30-8:30 am

Presentations,
discussions,
workshops, takeaway tools and resources.

To Register

Contact Sandra Kelly, Queen's
Centre, Castle Hill Hospital,
Hull, HU16 5JQ,

Sandra.kelly12@nhs.net

Tel: 01482 461260

Timetable

7.30am-8.30am	Breakfast, Registration and Networking
8.30am-8.40am	Welcome and Introductions Alex Wray, End of Life Matron
8.40am-9.05am	Why our priorities need to change: John Creasey, Bereavement Consultant
9.05am-9.35am	The Win: Win of providing bereavement support in the workplace. Lucy Vere, Director of Learning and Organisational Development
9.40am-10.35am	Workshop 1: 'Help I think I'm going crazy' John Creasey, Bereavement Consultant  Workshop 2: 'I'm lost for words' – Talking with Bereaved employees. Janis Hostad, Lecturer/Staff Development Matron
Coffee Break
11.00am-11.55am	Workshops repeated
12.00pm-12.50pm	'Rising from the Ashes': a personal account of work-life following Bereavement and Loss – Lizzie Jordan. An award winning social entrepreneur, high profile HIV advocate and marketing consultant who is also a mother, a widow and living with HIV.
12.50pm-1.00pm	Summary and Close

There will be a wide range of relevant organisations providing displays and information. Please address any queries/register for this event with Sandra Kelly, Queen's Centre, Castle Hill Hospital, Hull, HU16 5JQ.
Sandra.kelly12@nhs.net – 01482 461260.