Our golden ambition

Focusing on children and young people is our hope for the future. Only by making a generational change in health and care outcomes for today's children can we achieve our aims. This is why the Humber and North Yorkshire Integrated Care Partnership has the golden ambition of radically improving children's wellbeing, health and care.

Through our Start Well Board, this partnership is prioritising children and young people. In creating the conditions for all children and young people to start well, we are focussing on:

Prevention and early intervention

- Tackling asthma
- Improving dental health
- Making better use of data (HNY Connected)
- Enhancing safeguarding

Healthy pregnancies, healthy start

- Improving maternity and neonatal care services
- Enhancing the healthy child programme (0-19)

Learning well

- Improving early speech and language
- Ensuring access to therapeutic services
- Enabling participation for children with neurodiversity

Our golden ambition

Enhancing our offer for care leavers

Improving residential placements

Care experienced children and young people

- Improving access to health and care careers

Health and care futures

Emotional Resilience and Mental Health

- Enabling resilience and meeting need early
- Ensuring equitable access to mental health services
- Championing child-friendly practice
- Improving crisis care
